Final Student Outcomes - Cohort 2

Careers in Code is a coding bootcamp that teaches computer programming to women and minorities to help combat poverty in Central NY. We provide students with the technical skills they need to obtain internships and entry level software development jobs with local employers after 24 weeks of instruction. Our second cohort graduated in August of 2021.

61%
Graduation rate
from the full 24 week program

55%
Placement rate
in internship, full time, or consulting arrangements

Our Graduates See Results

6 of 11 graduates are employed in internship, full time, or consulting arrangements

87% Average Salary Increase

$47,493 Average Starting Salary

Our Talent Stays Local

kirk work

▲ Density

CEO CENTERSTATE CORPORATION FOR ECONOMIC OPPORTUNITY

Syracuse New York

Take it from our Cohort 2 Graduates!

"What interested me in Careers in Code was the opportunity to create opportunities rather than just take or seek opportunities."
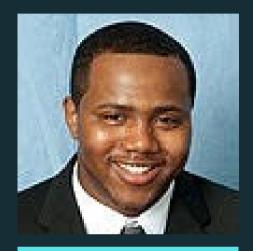

- La'Tonia Mertica Sheppard Walker (Cohort 2)

Now: Working on a technology ecosystem with the City of Syracuse

"Careers in Code was an incredible opportunity to learn from a collective of professionals who are very experienced in the field of coding and development. "

- Sara Dow (Cohort 2)

Now a: Junior Developer at Kirkwork

"My time in Careers and Code helped me understand agile principles, sdlc, and gave me a greater understanding of data from a technological standpoint."

- Mel Saffold (Cohort 2)

Now a: Product manager in IT for City of Syracuse

Our Talent Stays Local

kirk work

⅄ Density

CEO CENTERSTATE CORPORATION FOR ECONOMIC OPPORTUNITY

Syracuse New York